

CBI interviews banks candidates for administrative positions

Under the powers of the Central Bank of Iraq to approve candidates for banks and non-banking financial institutions, to fill administrative positions, and to serve on their boards of directors, the relevant committees of this bank shall interview and examine applicants for various positions.

Each committee interviews applicants nominated by banks and non-banking financial institutions to ascertain their abilities, expertise, and suitability to work in the banking environment.

CBI's decisions to accept or reject applications are binding on the sides that nominated the applicants.
