

The Center for Banking Studies opens the fifth course to qualify graduates in economic Specialties

The Central Bank of Iraq opened the fifth qualifying course in the field of banking work for graduates in economic and administrative specialties at the Center for Banking Studies for the period of 15 to 26 September 2019.

This course initiated as directed by Governor Ali Mohsen Ismail, as part of the Central Bank's initiative to train and qualify graduates to get a job in the banking sector.

Central Bank of Iraq

Media Office

18/9/2019