

CBI participates in the book fair

The Central Bank of Iraq participated in Baghdad International Book Fair, represented by the Department of Credit Information exchange and Public Protection, from Directorate of exchange monitoring, as well as the financial inclusion section from Directorate of Payments in this bank.

This participation came through the provision of information and public awareness on banking in addition to explaining the mechanism and strategy of financial inclusion in Iraq

This participation was distinguished by the visit of the pavilion to learn about the working mechanism of Iraqi banks and educate the public on the use of banking services.
