

Launching the Arab Day for Financial Inclusion

In order to educate the public of the importance of financial inclusion in Iraq, The activities of the financial inclusion week will start tomorrow for the period from 25-30 April 2018 and this event will be directly supervised by this bank and in cooperation with the Iraqi private banks league and the participation of banks and financial companies operating in Iraq, As well as the event will come along with the celebration of the Arab Day of Financial Inclusion in all Arab countries. During the event Iraqi and foreign banks and financial companies will present banking services and displaying all banking products in several public places, Shopping malls, Universities..etc.