

Clarification

Some social media websites have taken a false letter under the title of "Complaint and Financial Corruption" to withdraw four billion dollars from the Central Bank of Iraq in 2015, While this bank denies the issue of such letter and the whole situation. CBI confirms its right to sue those who fired these rumors and called on the media to be precise and careful in transmitting such news.